[redacted] on 1 April, the Falkensee restricted area was partly vacated and was to be released to the German population. However, the restricted area was again heavily occupied in mid-April. In May and early June, individual soldiers and details of the units quartered in the restricted area were frequently seen. Most of the personnel wore epaulets at the lower end of which a wide golden cross beam was seen. Red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia, black-bordered black and black-bordered blue epaulets were identified. [redacted] the personnel seen were participants of officers' courses. On 18 June, soldiers with baggage left on trucks. [redacted] the courses were completed. On 4 July, only a few EM with black-bordered blue epaulets were observed in the restricted area. According to informant, these soldiers belonged to the ground personnel of the Steaken airfield which was relieved every other day in the evening.

4. On 7 August, [redacted] in addition to Staaken airfield, Falkensee restricted area was to be vacated in the near future.<sup>3</sup> 25X1
5. On 10 August, [redacted] the restricted area was to be vacated until late August. The municipal administration, allegedly had given orders for reconditioning of the buildings before they were returned to the civilian population.<sup>2</sup>
6. Between noon and 1 p.m. on 10 August, three trucks loaded with furniture came from the restricted area. Two additional trucks were seen in the restricted area. Source believed that the restricted area was being vacated.<sup>2</sup>
7. About 4 p.m. on 10 August, two large piles of furniture and billeting equipment which were guarded by an air force officer were seen on Falkensee freight station. Six empty flatcars with sideracks were parked on a siding. Throughout the day on 11 August, furniture and billeting equipment was hauled from the restricted area to the freight station where it was loaded by air force personnel. Motor vehicles were also being loaded.<sup>2</sup>
8. About 6 p.m. on 11 August, a train carrying 15 to 20 trucks, 5 sedans, 3 motorcycles, 1 radio truck, furniture and air force soldiers left Falkensee freight station.<sup>2</sup>
9. Throughout the day and night on 11 August, billeting equipment which was hauled from a fenced-in area north of the station, was loaded at Falkensee railroad station. According to a local resident, the air force personnel quartered on Stalin Allee was transferred and the buildings were to be reoccupied by KVP.<sup>4</sup>
10. At 6:30 p.m. on 11 August, trucks hauled billeting equipment from the quarters of the Falkensee air force headquarters to Falkensee freight station. At noon on 12 August, the quarters of the air force headquarters appeared to be vacated. No loading operations were seen at the freight station. At 5:30 p.m. and 8:45 p.m., no lights were seen in the quarters which appeared empty. A KVP sentry with green collar patches was seen at the gate. There were rumors among the local population that the quarters were to be reoccupied by a tank headquarters and others that the buildings were to be released to the Germans.<sup>4</sup>
